Rainforests come alive in the rain... dress for the weather & a few puddles! 10 AM Beneath the BOG: Thursdays 10am: Lighthouse Loop Whale Lot trailhead Question: Why do 100 year old bog trees look like artistic bonsai plants or big broccoli? With the return of the rains, the bog is alive with colour & water flowing under the moss. Discover the secrets of dwarf trees, carnivorous sundews and the unique plants that thrive above an acidic pool of water. Explore our newest interpretive trail. 10 AM Big Beach Tidepools: Fridays 10am Big Beach Matterson & Marine Drive Question: Why are sea stars hard to find? Why are micro plastics a risk to sea creatures? Join our Trail Ambassador to discover treasures carried on each tide. Tiny creatures will steal your heart. Tidepools may be visible if tides allow. Dress for the weather! 10 AM Sea Wolves: Saturdays 10am: Lighthouse Loop Whale Lot trailhead (first lot on coast guard road) Question: Why do wolves howl? What do they eat? What does a wolf track look like? Why are wolves important to the environment? Take a walk on the wild side! Myths and true stories trace the sacred role of these fascinating local predators.
